

KEEPING NORTH CAROLINA'S FORESTS HEALTHY

Adult Asian longhorned beetle are shiny black with white spots on their backs. They are large,  $\frac{3}{4}$  – 1  $\frac{1}{2}$  inches long, with white and black banded antennae that can be up to twice the length of their body. While alive, the feet of the insect appear blue.

